

CAR'S PLUNGE
TO THE STREETTerrible Accident on New York Elevated.

TEN KILLED OUTRIGHT.

Many Were Injured This Morning
Through Misplaced Switch—Arrest Has Been Made —
Others to Follow.

New York, Sept. 11.—A car of the Ninth Avenue Elevated railway jumped the tracks at Ninth avenue and 53 rd street at 7:50 o'clock this morning and plunged to the street below. Ten people were killed, and 25 were injured.

The Dead.

Cornelius McCarthy.
Julius Corcoran.
J. W. Austach, member of the board of trade.
Ernest Schiebel.
Sol. Megast.
John Lees of Rockaway Beach.
Theo Morris, a negro.
Henrietta Desolin.
James Cooper.
William Black, a patrolman in Central Park.

Of the injured four died after being taken from the wreckage. At the Roosevelt hospital there are twelve victims who are probably fatally injured, and nine seriously hurt. John Lees of Rockaway Beach died on the operating table. Three others died before noon, making the list of fatalities up to that time as ten.

As the train approached 53rd street, where the Sixth Avenue trains are switched off from Ninth Avenue and sent through 53rd street to Sixth Avenue, the motorman, thinking that the switch was properly set for him, did not slacken his speed. The first two cars went around the curve into 53rd street, and the switchman, seeing his mistake, set the switch for Ninth Avenue. The third car, which was just about to cross the switch, was derailed, and after bumping over the ties for about twenty feet crashed through the railing and plunged into the street below. It struck the front windows of Jones' drug store at the corner, wrecking it completely. The fourth and fifth cars remained on the track.

The conductor was arrested and the police are looking for the motorman and switchman.

The train was bound downtown, and every car was packed with men, women, boys and girls going to work. The train as delayed at 116th street for several minutes, and when it finally got started the motorman tried to make up time.

The coroner says that fifteen were injured, some of whom will die.

It is the first time in the history of the elevated railway that a car has plunged into the street.

Switchman Jackson was arrested shortly before noon.

Jackson says that Kelley, the motorman, while running the Ninth Avenue train, displayed Sixth Avenue signals, and the former therefore showed clear track around the curve, and Kelley, paying no attention to the signals, took the curve, running thirty miles an hour.

An examination of the car shows that the front of the motor had Ninth Avenue signals displayed.

FOUR PERSONS DROWNED.

Two of the Victims Died While Trying to Save Others.

Dover, N. H., Sept. 11.—Four persons were drowned in the Cocheo river here yesterday as the result of two accidents. In each case one of the victims met death in trying to save another person.

The dead:

Thomas Keenan, aged 38, of South Boston, seaman on the schooner Sadie A. Kimball.

George Jones, aged 50, residence unknown, seaman on the Kimball.

Edward Durkin of Dover, an operative in the Cocheo cotton mills.

Durkin, six years old, son of Edward Durkin.

The accidents occurred late in the afternoon. Thomas Keenan, a seaman, was struck by a boom and knocked overboard. A boat was hastily lowered and George Jones, another seaman, was preparing to go to the rescue of Keenan when he lost his balance and fell from the railing, striking his head on the small boat. Jones fell into the river and sank instantly. Before another member of the crew could reach Keenan, the latter, too, had disappeared. Up to a late hour, neither body had been recovered.

The second accident occurred an hour and a half later. While Edward Durkin was out in a row boat with three of his children, one of the little ones fell into the river. The father dived for the child, but was unable to reach him, and becoming exhausted, sank. The other children were assisted to land by a man on the river bank. Durkin is survived by a wife and three small children.

A MYSTERY
IS SOLVEDAbout the Disappearance of Rochester Man.

DEAD BODY RECOVERED

James Parker Left Considerable Property and It Is Not Known if Any Relatives Survive Him.

Rochester, Sept. 11.—The mystery about the disappearance of James Parker, who went away from the home of Paul Tinkham six weeks ago, was cleared up Saturday when the badly decomposed body of the man was discovered one-quarter of a mile east of this village by a young hunter, named Page. Beside the body was a bottle which had contained laudanum.

When Parker went away from the Tinkham home it was supposed that he had gone to visit relatives, and no great apprehension was felt. He was supposed to have a sister residing in Canada, also a brother, whose residence was not known.

Parker came to this place about twenty years ago. He worked as stage driver between this place and Hancock, and later went to work on Mr. Tinkham's farm. Parker entrusted to Mrs. Tinkham $70 in money and a bank book on the Rutland County bank, containing entries for $2,200. He was 50 years old and so far as known was not married. The local authorities have started a hunt to ascertain if there are any relatives living. The body was buried at once.

Parker was very much liked here. Suicide is the generally accepted theory to account for his death.

MORE EARTHQUAKES.

Seismic Disturbances Continue to Stir
Italy.

Rome, Sept. 11.—Further slight earthquake shocks yesterday caused additional terror among the afflicted inhabitants of Calabria. The damage, however, was insignificant although the disturbances affected a more extended area, reaching Reggio and Naples. The activity of Mount Vesuvius increased, while the violent eruption of the ancient crater on the island of Stromboli is still in progress.

Minister of Public Works Ferraris is making a minute personal investigation of the extent of the disaster, visiting even the smallest hamlets in the stricken provinces and carrying funds and material for the immediate relief of the starving and ill clad people. Everywhere he is met by crowds who appeal to him for aid. Despite the efforts of the authorities many persons have not yet been reached, owing to the difficulty of bringing sufficient supplies. The relief trains which are carrying food, clothing and medicine are compelled to proceed slowly owing to the fact that great fissures have been caused at many places along the railroad tracks by the shocks.

ALLEGED FORGERY.

Concord, N. H., Police Are Looking for Mark Lynch.

Concord, Sept. 11.—What appears to the police to be a bold case of forgery was called to their attention Saturday afternoon, and an all night hunt and plenty of work on the matter Sunday has failed to land the much wanted man.

Saturday forenoon Mark Lynch, about 23 years old, walked into a local clothing establishment and purchased a $8 suit case. He tendered in payment a check drawn on the Mechanics National bank in favor of Mark Lynch, calling for $40, and signed ostensibly by O. A. Anderson, the well known stone manufacturer. The check was later deposited with the Capital State bank and returned by that bank to the clothing dealer. The latter at once communicated with Mr. Anderson, who denied all knowledge of the check.

The matter was at once reported to the police, and this led to a further investigation, which developed that there were three other checks charged to Mr. Anderson's account of which he knew nothing. The first was dated Aug. 21, the others subsequent to that date.

NEEDLE FROM LEG.

Essex Junction Woman Relieved of Painful Thing.

Essex Junction, Sept. 11.—Last Thursday Mrs. N. E. Clifford felt a severe pain in her right leg. Saturday morning Dr. David Marvin was called and performed an operation and found a needle imbedded in the muscles at a depth of about an inch and a half in the fleshy part of the limb near the body. ENVOYS IN WASHINGTON.

Russians appeared to Be Pleased by Their Visit.

Washington, Sept. 11.—M. Witte and Baron De Rosen, the Russian peace plenipotentiaries, accompanied by five members of the former's suite, spent Sunday in Washington. They left again late yesterday afternoon for New York, from which place M. Witte will sail for Hamburg next Tuesday. While here they were in charge of Acting Secretary Loomis of the state department, and Maj. Charles McCawley of the marine corps. Beginning at the White House, the party in turn went to the Russian embassy, the Capitol, the congressional library, Mount Vernon, Arlington and Rock Creek park.

As he left for New York, M. Witte expressed to Mr. Loomis his keen appreciation of the pleasure which his brief stay in the American capital had given him. It had been, he said, very interesting and instructive, and he had been well repaid for the trip.

The unique character of Washington in that it was made up largely of government buildings and private residences impressed him very much and he frequently made reference to the many beautiful parks with their wealth of trees and flowers. The weather was very pleasant throughout the day.

A small crowd gathered at the station at the time the envoys departed for New York, and M. Witte acknowledged their salutations and cheers from the platform of his car.

The trial begins today and it is thought that the proceedings will last three or four days. Mitchell is in the county jail, totally blind from his self-inflicted wound, and there is but little probability that he will ever regain his eyesight. He still suffers great pain from his wound.

BLEW UP DANCE HALL.

Italian Socialists of Montpelier Lay It to Anarchists.

When the Italian Socialists of Montpelier went to their picnic grounds yesterday for their weekly picnic they found their dance hall and band stand wrecked almost completely. This explains the terrific explosion heard Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock and ascribed to the digging of a spring on Emmaus hill, as was stated in Saturday's paper. When asked for the reason the Socialists shrugged their shoulders and said: "It was done by somebody who is jealous of us." That they lay it to the Anarchist section of the Italians they were not slow in saying, too.

The wreckage of the band stand and dance floor is strewn about the field for some distance, and three in that neighborhood carry evidences of the destruction. There is one large piece of wood lodged in a tree twenty-five feet from the ground. The boards and timbers are broken into bits. Below where the dance floor stood is a big hole in the ground, showing that dynamite must have been used. The dance floor was thirty feet square.

The Socialists say that this is the third attempt within the last few weeks to destroy the pavilion. The structure was located back of the house of Michael Slattery on Hill street, on Berlin side. The Socialists had leased the ground for picnic purposes.

350 MEN WITH APPETITES.

Were Fed at the R. C. Bowers Company Clam Bake Saturday.

The annual clam bake of the well known R. C. Bowers Granite company was held Saturday afternoon at Fountain Park. This was the tenth annual treat that the company has given to the granite polishers and their employees of this city and Montpelier, and it was no less a successful and enjoyable occasion than the former ones have been. It was an ideal day and out of the generous supply of invitations sent around by the company fully 350 men accepted and were feasted to a clam bake that would have done justice to the fame of old Rhode Island. In fact, a colored chef who has grown old in the business at the beaches in Rhode Island prepared this bake and everyone who was fortunate enough to receive an invitation and went will vouch that it was genuine. The menu consisted of chowder, baked clams, boiled live lobster, corn and sweet potatoes and watermelon. As the men filed out of the tent after two hours of feasting, the generous host, Mr. Bowers, presented everyone with a large wooden pipe as a souvenir of the most pleasant occasion.

CITY COURT RUSHED.

Six Cases of Intoxication Broke the Court's Dry Spell.

There was a rush of business at city court this morning when six drunks who had been gathered in by the police since Saturday afternoon were tried out. Edward Downs was arrested by Officer Hamel Saturday afternoon and this morning he pleaded guilty to a second offense and was fined $15, with costs of $10.60, which he had not been able to raise at this writing. The same officer also took in Arthur C. Travers and Joseph Kave Saturday night. They pleaded guilty this morning and were fined $5 and costs of $8.60 each, and paid. Officer Carle arrested the other three yesterday, John Jones of Montpelier, Frank Smith and T. J. Rahill. This trio answered "guilty" and paid the usual V and costs.

WEDDED LIFE
OF 50 YEARSMr. and Mrs. David Boles
Celebrate Golden Wedding

AT THEIR HOME TODAY.

Honored Couple Have Resided Since
Marriage on the Farm Where They Entertained Today Many Friends.

At their pleasantly located residence on Beckley Hill, just outside the city limits, in a house which has sheltered them for half a century, Mr. and Mrs. David Boles today entertained their many friends on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. The old homestead, the rendezvous for many happy parties, was this afternoon the scene of gayety unsurpassed, as the acquaintances from the surrounding section gathered to pay their respects to the worthy couple.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Boles entered into the spirit of the occasion with much zest. In spite of the fact that their years are considerable, time has dealt kindly with them, and they are quite well and fully capable of enjoying a good time. Mr. Boles lacks a few months of being 82 years of age, and his wife is still two years short of the three score and ten. Her maiden name was Vienna Beckley, she being the daughter of the late Luther Beckley. Mr. and Mrs. Boles were married September 11, 1855, by the Rev. Edward Copeland.

Their present residence is the birthplace of Mr. Boles, and the wife was born on a farm adjoining on the north, the farmhouse being almost in sight of the Boles residence. So Mr. Boles has spent nearly 82 years on the place. It was settled by Abel Sawyer in the latter part of the eighteenth century. It was one of the first settled farms in the town of Wildersburgh, the old name of Barre. For a century the place has been in the family.

After gaining an education in the district schools, Mr. Boles learned the blacksmith's trade with his grandfather. Although he has long since given up that, he is still skilled in the use of tools and occasionally turns his attention to showing the younger generation what he can do.

Mr. Boles has never aspired to public office, but almost every position in the town has been offered him urgently. Possessed of ample means, he has preferred to live a quiet life on his farm. Mrs. Boles has much skill with the brush, and has done well in the portrait of nature.

Their only child, a son, died when quite young. Mrs. Boles has two brothers, John and Fred Beckley, and one sister, Mrs. L. M. Averill, all of whom reside in this city.

The honored couple were the recipients today of a large number of presents, and this in spite of the fact that it was their wish that their friends refrain from making gifts.

WEDDED 15 YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arkley of East
Barre Surprised Saturday.

About forty of the friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arkley met at their home in East Barre last Saturday and helped them celebrate their fifteenth wedding anniversary. The friends gathered at the home of Frank Rogers, Richardson street, and drove up about 10 a. m., followed by a load of furniture from B. W. Hooker's store. They found their host and hostess busy at work. Mr. Arkley was digging potatoes in the field, which proved more than a joke for later in the day all lent a willing hand in picking them up. It was a complete surprise and a very enjoyable day was spent. At 1 o'clock a picnic dinner was served under the trees in the yard and John Arkley and Mrs. A. A. Northrop presented Mr. and Mrs. Arkley with 7 dining chairs and two rocking chairs, a table cloth, pair of linen towels, 4 silver spoons, two table doilies and a crocheted mat. Mrs. F. R. Northrop accepted the gifts in behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Arkley, who also thanked the friends for the same.

The party lingered until late in the evening, and a corn roast was enjoyed by moonlight on the lawn.

Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John Arkley and children, and Miss May Arkley from Waterbury; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hodgdon, Walden; Mr. and Mrs. George Wheelock, Calais; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Northrop, South Roylton; Miss Josie George from Richmond.

SHARKEY—CREED.

Marriage of Well Known Barre Young

The couple were unattended. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Sharkey went to the home of the bride's father, C. A. Creed, 11 Bolster avenue, for supper. They will reside at 28 West street.

Both the bride and groom are well known and popular young people of this city. Mr. Sharkey is employed in the grocery store of Merchant & Fraser.

The five-a-side foot ball contest was won by the Young Men's Club team, with Northfield second. There were five teams entered: Y. M. C., Northfield, Bon Accord, Rangers A., Rangers B.

In the first game, Northfield easily defeated the Bon Accord by the overwhelming score of 4 goals and 1 point to 0. The line up was:

NORTHFIELD: Nichol, goal; Stewart, back; Craik, forward; Hughes, forward; Mitchell, forward; Thompson.

The Y. M. C. defeated Rangers A. easily with the score of 4 to 1. The lineup was:

Y. M. C.: Robertson, goal; McKenzie, back; Gordon, forward; Smith, forward; McDonald, forward; Cunningham, forward; Birnie.

In a snappy game, Northfield snatched their second game from Rangers B. by the score of 2 goals and 1 point to 0. The line-up of Rangers B. was: Goal, Criswick; back, Wright; forwards, Finney, Lindsay and Mason.

The final contest between Y. M. C. and Northfield was easily the most exciting contest of the day. For the first few minutes the play was fast and furious, when suddenly the ball rose from Rust's foot and described a long arc, going clean through the goal posts. It proved to be the only goal of the game. In the second half, Even scored a point for Northfield, but could not save the game.

Time, 5 minute halves; referee, Alex Murray.
